

Turning - CNC Machinist

Due to on-going investment and continuous business development, we currently have vacancies for skilled CNC Lathe Operators. Please contact us if you would like to be part of our growing team and help continuously improve our Sub-Contract Machining Company.

The successful candidate will require: -

- To be time-served with experience of Fanuc or Pro-Track programming on CNC Lathes
- Have experience of working within the Sub-Contract industry manufacturing components for various industries
- Be able to operate and adhere to 9001/45001 & 14001 HSEQ standards
- Demonstrate aptitude for developing new and improving existing manufacturing processes
- A keen appetite for learning, along with an enthusiastic approach to work and life
- Competitive Rates of Pay

You will possess a proven track record within a similar engineering environment. Good communication, problem solving skills and the ability to work well within a proactive highly driven team environment are essential.
