

Machine Shop Operators

Due to on-going investment and continuous business development we currently have a position available for Machine Shop Operators to work within our long-established Sub-Contract Engineering Organisation.

The successful candidates will have the following:-

- A genuine interest in Engineering / Manufacturing
- A keen appetite for learning, along with an enthusiastic approach to work and life.
- Be able to work well in a team environment with excellent communication skills.
- Operate at all times within our current quality and health & safety regulations.
- Experience of operating in a machine shop or similar environment would be beneficial but not necessary as on-going training will be provided.
